Abstract

The current COVID-19 pandemic is a massive source of global disruption, having led so far to two hundred and fifty million COVID-19 cases and almost five million deaths worldwide. It was recognized in the beginning that only an effective vaccine could lead to a way out of the pandemic, and therefore the race for the COVID-19 vaccine started immediately, boosted by the availability of the viral sequence data. Two novel vaccine platforms, based on mRNA technology, were developed in 2020 by Pfizer-BioNTech and Moderna Therapeutics (comirnaty® and spikevax®, respectively), and were the first ones presenting efficacies higher than 90%. Both consisted of N1-methylpseudouridine-modified mRNA encoding the SARS-COVID-19 Spike protein and were delivered with a lipid nanoparticle (LNP) formulation. Because the delivery problem of ribonucleic acids had been known for decades, the success of LNPs was quickly hailed by many as the unsung hero of COVID-19 mRNA vaccines. However, the clinical trial efficacy results of the Curevac mRNA vaccine (CVnCoV) suggested that the delivery system was not the only key to the success. CVnCoV consisted of an unmodified mRNA (encoding the same spike protein as Moderna and Pfizer-BioNTech's mRNA vaccines) and was formulated with the same LNP as Pfizer-BioNTech's vaccine (Acuitas ALC-0315). However, its efficacy was only 48%. This striking difference in

Covid19 Mandatory Vaccination

Following the West Australian Government advice on Mandatory Vaccinations on the 20" October 2021, please see below requirements that have been implemented by the government:

Based on the latest health advice, a mandatory vaccination policy for a majority of occupations and workforces within WA shall be introduced in a phased approach.

The policy follows the existing mandates in place for workers in high-risk industries, including those interacting with people at an increased risk of being infected with COVID-19, or people who are vulnerable to the impacts of COVID-19, or where it is necessary to avoid catastrophic risk to the safety of the community.

The policy's phased approach is to apply mandatory vaccinations for more industries within WA, as well as a requirement for other critical workers to be vaccinated to attend work in the event of a lockdown or similar restrictions.

- Group 1 industries and occupations:

 First dose by 1 December 2021 and fully vaccinated by 31 December 2021:

 Industries determined to have high transmission risk, or are a vulnerability risk or are necessary or critical to the safety of the community

 A number of these industries have been announced previously and are currently in the - process of implementation

Group 2 industries and occupations: First dose by 31 December 2021 and fully vaccinated by 31 January 2022:

- Industries and workforce deemed critical to ongoing delivery of business and the function of the community

 Mandating requirement in place to ensure the continuity of key services and businesses in the
- event of expected community transmission.

In the event of a lockdown:

Must be fully vaccinated to attend work during a lockdown or similar restrictions.

These critical workers must be fully vaccinated to leave home to attend work, to decrease transmission risk and prevent impact on the delivery of services.

Based on the above advice, our Industry and occupations are within Group 2:

- First dose by 31 December 2021
 Fully vaccinated by 31 January 2022

Contractors must ensure they have evidence of their employees vaccinations in line with Government advice, and ensure that a register of vaccinated employees / subcontractors sub/subcontractors is provided to provided to

The Chief Health Officer of WA has previously approved the following forms of evidence as proof of Between 1945 and 1947, 18 people were injected with plutonium, six with uranium, five with polonium, and at least one with americium by the Manhattan Project medical team. Only one of the subjects signed a consent form. The rest had no idea what was being injected into them. Reports show that many of the low-level physicians themselves were unaware of the exact substance they were injecting into patients.

These human subjects were essentially used as guinea pigs and calibration devices.

It was very important, you see. They needed to understand the dangers facing Manhattan Project workers and how to protect them. They were, of course, developing a weapon to eviscerate over 100,000 Japanese civilians. There is even evidence that Oppenheimer himself

Hello @DrLoupis,

We appreciate your message, and we do have more information for you.

Sometimes, we will take action on an account or Tweet(s) based on behaviors that create a negative impact on Twitter. This can include interactions with other accounts, Tweeting inappropriate content, or a variety of other violations of our rules. As a result, the visibility of these accounts or Tweet(s) may be affected. We have more information available on the Twitter blog, and our Help Center. For most accounts, this is a temporary outcome, and if no further negative behavior occurs, the account will eventually be restored to full access and visibility.

💃 Pizza Pepe 🤣 @redpilledasfuck · 2d

These two have been doing some weird shit since someone connected them to Epstein. Makes me think it's actually true, did Epstein teach them this disgusting shit?

Readers added context

Island Boys have denied being the children in the image with Jeffrey Epstein.

This Is One Of The Epstein Victims Suing The FBI For $600 Million For Ignoring Her Claims

"I have spend the last 17 years in my own prison for what she, Jeffery & all the coconspirators did to me. I was raped repeatedly, I was raped 3x per day sometimes & I was not the only girl on that island. There was a constant stream of girls being raped over and over and over again"

The FBI did nothing. They have since safely tucked away the Jeffery Epstein client list and protect the child rapists.

Is this acceptable? Maybe Christopher Wray should stop booking flights to attend meetings at The WEF Annual Events and arrest some child traffickers, human traffickers and child sex traffickers.
